

ELECTRICAL SAFETY TRAINING

Objectives:

This course aims to highlight the primary roles of the Electrical Workers and to enable them make use of important procedures and some effective techniques to eliminate and minimize the presence of injuries and risks caused by electricity.

Course overview:

- Understanding electricity
- Electrical terms
- Hazards of electricity
- Electrocutation response during emergencies
- Control measures for electrical hazards
- Electrical equipment's safety tips
- Electrical lock-out and tag-out
- Safe work practices

Course Duration

4 – 6 hours

Participants

Maximum of 10 participants per training

Certification

Delegates will be issued a HSEPro certificate upon successful completion of course

For inquiries, please contact us.

Contact: +971 09 2244 594
Email: training@hsepro.org
Website: www.hsepro.org