

Occupational Health and Safety Officer Certificate

A recognized qualification for Construction, Refinery, and Oil and Gas industry.

Objectives:

This course aims to prepare individuals about the roles and responsibilities of a Safety Practitioner and to enable them to make use of important procedures and some effective techniques to eliminate and minimize the presence of hazards that can cause injuries and ill-health to workers within the organization. This also intended to develop and improve the Leadership Skills of the individual to become a proactive in safety.

Course is intended for:

Individuals, supervisors, managers, team leaders who are interested to gain more knowledge in the occupational health and safety and for those who wants to change their career in the health and a safety department.

Course overview:

Element	Course Topic	Element	Course Topic
Element 1	Health and Safety Management System	Element 3	Construction Safety
	International and Local HSE Regulations		Electrical Safety
	Risk Management		Working at Heights Safety
	Incident and Accident Investigation		Excavation Safety
Permit to Work System	Cranes Rigging and Slings Safety
Element 2	Confined Space Safety	Element 4	Performance Monitoring
	Atmosphere Testing Confined Space		Environmental Protection
	Lock-out and Tag-out Safety		Proactive in Safety – Leadership
	Fire Safety		Skills for Safety Supervisors

Assessment:

Written and practical assessment to measure students' learning outcomes and skill proficiency

Duration:

4 Days

Register NOW!

Contact: 09 22 44 594 | 055 117 5052
Email: training@hsepro.org
Website: www.hsepro.org